Highway Marine Group has a portfolio of 14 apartments and townhouses, in Sandwich, Kent. The properties are located across two sites -

Fisherman's Wharf and Pillory Gate Wharf and most enjoy views of the River.

Sandwich, on the River Stour was once a large prestigious harbour busy with trading and war ships. Today the river is quiet and tranquil and with Sandwich being just a few miles from the sea, it is a popular spot for pleasure boats. Take a walk through the town and you're never far from the reminders of its rich and intriguing history.

All properties are available for 6-month tenancy agreements and are offered fully or part furnished. All have private parking.

Fishermans Wharf Apartments, Sandwich

Fisherman's Wharf riverside apartments are adjacent to the old Toll Bridge on Sandwich Quay. The six apartments are well designed and attractively decorated, offering the same range of facilities, with slight variation in layout.

The four studio apartments have a large bedsitting room with dining area, a separate fully equipped kitchen, shower room and toilet. The two larger apartments have a lounge with sofa bed and dining area, a separate kitchen and a shower room. Upstairs is a bedroom with double bed or 2 singles, with views over the river or patio garden.

Pillory Gate Wharf, Sandwich

This site was once a warehouse used for boat building and sail making. Converted into four town houses and four apartments, Pillory Gate has been elegantly furnished, each offering superb accommodation for up to four people.

The ground floors of the town houses provide cloakroom, and laundry facilities. The first floors have fully equipped fitted kitchens with breakfast area and a spacious lounge with a balcony offering views over the River Stour.

The second floors have two bedrooms and a bathroom with shower. The bedrooms are tastefully decorated with king-size, double and single beds.

The Pillory Gate Wharf apartments are all very individual offering a bathroom with shower, kitchen and lounge. Two apartments also have private balconies overlooking the river.
